

OVERVIEW

WIND TARTARE (FR) is a Stakes-Placed European import that has only run off the board once in her four starts in America and still owns her N2X condition. This filly is dependable, consistent and the definition of a trier – Wind Tartare (FR) has never finished more than 3 ½ lengths from the winner, and that was her worst career start!

CLIFF NOTES

- ✓ WINNER AT 2: Wind Tartare (FR) broke her maiden in one of the most competitive racing jurisdictions, especially for 2 year-olds, in the world – France
- ✓ STAKES PLACED: Despite the highly competitive racing stage in France, Wind Tartare (FR) ran a short second in a Stakes race to subsequent American import – Rymaska (FR) – who went on to be a two-time G3 Winner and was only 3 ½ lengths from New Money Honey in the G1 Juvenile Fillies Turf once imported to America.
- ✓ UNLUCKY BREAK: She had almost three months off between her last two runs, but that was not by choice. Whether it was a race coming off the turf, or it wasn't used by the racing office, Wind Tartare (FR) could never get in the race she wanted. She breezed every week in September and October until she found her last race.
- ✓ OBVIOUS CHOICE: She has yet to start in America for less than 3-1 and has been the favorite in 50% of her races
- ✓ CONSISTENCY:
 - Last four starts in Beyer numbers – 79, 79, 78, 79
 - Last four starts in Thoro-Graph numbers – (9 ¼), (9 ¼), (9 ¼), X

LOOKING AHEAD

WIND TARTARE (FR) is ready to win her N2X and offers flexibility in that she can do it from 7/8th of a mile to 1 ¼ miles. She is another dependable European turf filly that has a long future ahead of her. Distance, Turf condition, Country, Continent – Wind Tartare (FR) will show up to run. Did we mention she ran an impressive 7 Thoro-Graph last out? Good enough for Stakes Company!
