3YO YEAR

Mia Mischief's three-year-old year began much the way same way her two-year-old year ended. She put in an 8 ¼ length wallop of her competition at Oaklawn in the Purple Martin Stakes before turning in another top effort in the G2 Eight Belles (Replay) at Churchill Downs on Kentucky Oaks day. Breaking typically fast, she shot straight to the lead in the 7 furlong event and never looked back, posting fractions of 22 1/5, 44 1/5 and 1:08 3/5 on her way to victory, defeating graded stakes winners Talk Veuve to Me and Gas Station Sushi, while earning a then career best 97 Beyer Speed Figure.

As one of the top female three-year-old sprinters, Mia Mischief was always to be aimed towards a start in the G1 Test at Saratoga (Replay). Going to the lead as she typically did, her and Classy Act went through fractions of 22 3/5 and 45 3/5 before her foe began to retreat. Left to her own devices, she carried on with her speed as they came into the stretch, setting the stage for a stretch battle with G1 winner, Separationofpowers. They threw it down with one of the races of the year, with Mia ultimately running 2nd, beaten an agonizing neck.

4YO YEAR

Mia Mischief arrived back at Churchill Downs at four, ready to take aim at the G1 Humana Distaff (Replay) against some of the best filly and mare sprinters in the country. After breaking sharply, she and Amy's Challenge went head and head for much of the backstretch, going through fractions of 22 3/5 and 45 flat before Mia Mischief edged clear of that rival. Once in the stretch, Mia widened her lead while posting a 6 furlong split of 1:08 1/5 on her way to a 1 ¾ length victory over G1 winner Marley's Freedom, going the 7 furlongs in 1:21 3/5, earning a career best Beyer Speed Figure of 99.

Though this race would be difficult to top, an ungraded stakes race at Churchill Downs would serve as a showdown between not only two of Into Mischief's best fillies, but two of the best female sprinters in the country. Mia Mischief lined up in the Roxelana Stakes (Replay) at Churchill Downs against Covfefe, the eventual winner of the G1 Test and right out of the gate, it appeared as though this was a match race. The pair sped through fractions of 21 1/5 and 44 2/5 while going head and head into the stretch. Mia Mischief eventually edged past her rival after throwing it down, winning by 3/4 of a length in the end.

SIRE

Into Mischief has become one of the best sires the United States has seen in recent memory. Not only is he the leading General Sire of 2019, he is the #1 sire of two-year-olds and three-year-olds. He is the ONLY sire with four seven-figure horses at this year's two-year-old in training sales. Not only is he the current leading sire in America, but his best-bred crops have yet to hit the track, which means Into Mischief's profile is set to grow even more.
