AFICIONADO digs in to break his maiden at Keeneland on October 17th.

WHY IS HE HERE?

AFICIONADO is owned by the stallion making group of SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Fred Hertrich, John Fielding and Golconda Stables. This group purchased 24 yearling colts with stallion pedigrees during the 2018 yearling season with the goal to produce a G1 winning 2-year-old/stallion prospect. G1W and Breeders' Cup Juvenile participant EIGHT RINGS came out of this group and as his breeding rights have been sold, the venture will now reposition the rest of the group which will undoubtedly include future Graded Stakes winners.

These 2-year-olds that are offered by this group are lightly raced horses who are standout physicals with stallion quality pedigrees representing plenty of blue sky ahead.

After a solid 3rd in his debut sprinting on the dirt, AFICIONADO was given a chance on the turf in a rich, Kentucky Downs maiden special weight stretching out to a mile. He ran big to run a game second and was put back on the turf at Keeneland this past fall meet.

Breaking from post 11 of 12, AFICIONADO endured a very wide trip (42 feet father than the 2nd finisher) but gamely prevailed in the stretch to win by a neck (Watch Replay).

AFICIONADO is a very strong physical by the red-hot INTO MISCHIEF and brought $500,000 at the 2018 Keeneland September sale. Into Mischief's yearling average during the 2018 sale season was $277,000 overall and $300,000 for his colts.

LOOKING AHEAD

With 3 lifetime starts, AFICIONADO has improved in each start and comes to the sale as a last out winner over a very full field at Keeneland. Now that he has found his niche going 2-turns on the turf, AFICIONADO is an exciting Stakes prospect for next year, especially with the rise in purses and Graded Stakes for turf racing- especially in New York.

A possible Stakes schedule for AFICIONADO includes but is not limited to:
