PAST PERFORMANCES

Since Focus Group was stretched out to 1 ½ miles, he has been a new horse. In his four-year-old debut, he took a Keeneland allowance race, running away from the field late (Replay) to kick start his ascent into a perennial graded stakes horse. By the end of the year, he had annexed the John's Call at Saratoga (Replay) before running 3rd in the G1 Canadian International (Replay). This year has been more of the same for Focus Group, beginning with a victory in the G2 Pan American at Gulfstream Park (Replay) before earning another G1 placing more recently in the Northern Dancer at Woodbine (Replay).

SUMMARY

Focus Group is a horse can be eligible to run for a couple million dollars and that is only the first half of next year. With so much money being made available for turf horses right now, he is a no brainer for anyone's stable.
