Race Notes:

PAST PERFORMANCES

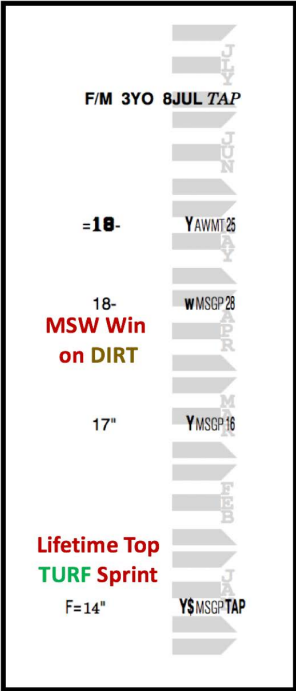

In her next start, READY TO TANGO was moved over to the dirt and put in another strong bit, finishing second behind multiple Graded Stakes winner ROYAL CHARLOTTE (G2 Prioress, G3 Victory Ride). The third place finisher, SINWAAN, went on to break her maiden next out in a MdSpWt at Keeneland.

READY TO TANGO broke her maiden in her first start facing older fillies and mares. She made easy work of the field to draw away, winning by 1 1/4 lengths. The second place finisher, Bella Tormenta, went on to win her next start and Alw-N1X in her next two outings (Watch Replay).

She was last seen making both her Stakes and 2-turn debut on the grass, however ultimately seems better suited as a 1-turn sprinter on either surface.

LOOKING AHEAD

Since her last start at the end of May, READY TO TANGO was given a 60 day freshening and has been started back at WinStar where she most recently posted several workouts.

By international super-sire MORE THAN READY, READY TO TANGO has inherited her sire's affinity for both dirt and turf. With only 4 lifetime starts under her belt, READY TO TANGO is a lightly-raced filly who is ready to take down her Alw-N1X condition.
