OVERVIEW

WOW CAT arrived in the US as a largely untested four-year old filly with a record of 8 for 8 in her native Chile. This record included: a Chilean Triple Crown victory, the first filly EVER to do so, four Grade 1 wins and a combined winning margin of nearly 48 lengths – including two wins over males. Thrown right into the deep end of the distaff division, she notched a Grade 1 win in the Beldame at Belmont Park as well as a tough luck 2nd place finish in last year's Breeders' Cup Distaff. She comes to Fasig-Tipton as the next in a long line of Southern Hemisphere-bred fillies and mares to have made their mark in North America.

MG1W & ONLY filly to ever win Chilean Triple Crown

IN CHILE

WOW CAT debuted over 6 ½ furlongs on the dirt as a 5-2 favorite in a maiden race at Hipodromo Chile and promptly destroyed the field to win by 8 lengths, stamping her as a star of the future. Tried against G1 company for the first time, Wow Cat responded with another victory, this time in the Tanteo de Potrancas back at Hipodromo Chile. From there, she would go on to notch three additional G1 victories in her native Chile, including the 1000 Guineas as well as the St. Leger against males (Replay), crushing her competition by 5 ½ lengths, becoming the first filly to EVER capture the country's Triple Crown.

Wow Cat wins the Chilean St. Leger, becoming the first filly to ever win the Chilean Triple Crown.

4YO YEAR

WOW CAT would earn G1 blacktype in the G1 Personal Ensign at Saratoga when running 3rd before being pointed towards the G1 Beldame at Belmont where she came home 3 ¼ lengths in front (Replay) winning with the same sort of ease that she had at the beginning of her career. In winning the G1 Beldame, she took down future G1 winner COME DANCING, as well as graded stakes winners DIVINE MISS GREY, VERVE'S TALE, TERESA Z, BERNED and FARRELL.

Wow Cat out for training at Churchill Downs before her 2nd in the Breeders' Cup Distaff.

WOW CAT would then run 2nd in the G1 Breeders' Cup Distaff behind Champion MONOMOY GIRL after trailing the field by 11+ lengths. She wound up being beaten by just a length after traveling nine more feet than the winner and coming home fastest of all, according to the Trakus chart.

Trakus Chart from the 2018 Breeders' Cup Distaff shows her coming home quickest of all the eleven starters. She also ran 9 feet (one length) further than the winner.

Race Notes:

5YO YEAR

WOW CAT hit the board in another graded stake, this time running a gallant 2nd to division leader Midnight Bisou in the G2 Beldame at Belmont Park. She is now aiming to go one better in the Breeders' Cup Distaff before arriving at Fasig-Tipton.

PEDIGREE

While she is Chilean-bred in name, she maintains quite an American page. She is by the two-time Champion, LOOKIN AT LUCKY, out of the Cat Thief mare, Winter Cat. Thus far, Winter Cat has produced two other stakes horses, both by the sensational SCAT DADDY, including Winwin who is G1 placed in Chile. Her dam is a half-sister to the stakes winning Bay Harbor (Scat Daddy), who has in-turn produced Lucky Bay (Lookin At Lucky), who is also G1 placed in Chile.

SUMMARY

WOW CAT had a big reputation when arriving in the US from Chile and she more than lived up to it, becoming a 5-time G1 victory while coming desperately close to adding the G1 Breeders' Cup Distaff to her resume. She is a true dirt Champion who could do anything that was asked of her and she will be a valuable addition to anyone's racing stable or broodmare band.
