CZECHMIGHT takes them wire-to-wire to break his maiden at Keeneland.

WHY IS HE HERE?

CZECHMIGHT is owned by the stallion making group of SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing, Madaket Stables, Fred Hertrich, John Fielding and Golconda Stables. This group purchased 24 yearling colts with stallion pedigrees during the 2018 yearling season with the goal to produce a G1 winning 2-year-old/stallion prospect. G1W and Breeders' Cup Juvenile participant EIGHT RINGS came out of this group and as his breeding rights have been sold, the venture will now reposition the rest of the group which will undoubtedly include future Graded Stakes winners.

These 2-year-olds that are offered by this group are lightly raced horses who are standout physicals with stallion quality pedigrees representing plenty of blue sky ahead.

With one start under his belt, CZECHMIGHT rose to the occasion to break his maiden in his first start around 2-turns. Breaking from post 8 of 8 in a Keeneland maiden special weight, CZECHMIGHT took the field wire-to-wire while setting sharp fractions (:23⁴, :47³).

Headed at the top of the stretch by rivals to his inside and outside, CZECHMIGHT gamely dug under steady urging from jockey Jose Ortiz to prevail by a head. He earned a 72 Beyer for his win and is back on the work tab.
