Eel Point strolls home an easy winner at Keeneland.

ANALYSIS

Eel Point posted a career-best effort last out at Keeneland, rolling to an 8-1/2 length maiden win (race replay) while earning careerbest figures on Thoro-Graph and DRF Beyer. Statistically, Eel Point's two best races have come around 1-turn and being that he is now starter-eligible (ran for MCL $40k), he will be eligible for a number of different races moving forward. He's been in training since his last start, posting a work on November 8th going an easy 4f at Churchill Downs in :49.2. Being that he is back on the work tab after his maiden win, his new connections should be able to ease him right in to his new training program with the possibility of running him shortly after the sale.

Eel Point is coming in to his own at the end of his 3-year-old season, evidenced by his career-best effort last out at the Keeneland October meet. The COVID pandemic forced Eel Point to have to wait until August of this year before he was able to make his 3-year-old debut. When shortened back up around 1-turn in his 4th start off the bench, he put it all together cruising to an easy 8 1/2 length win over 7 furlongs.

EEL POINT

Eel Point was also at his best in his latest start on Thoro-Graph, posting a career-best (8²) effort by a wide margin. This lightly raced son of super-sire Into Mischief looks to be competitive moving forward into first level allowance or starter allowance company.
