ANALYSIS

HELLO HOT ROD is now 3-for-4 lifetime after taking the $100,000 Jimmy Winkfield gate-to-wire last out on Jan-31. The Maryland-bred half-brother to standout sprinter HELLO BEAUTIFUL had previously taken an Alw-N1X at Laurel with ease after breaking his maiden in similar fashion over 10 other rivals. The only blemish on his record is a runner-up finish by a neck on debut. Even still, he managed to finish well in the stretch despite the slow pace set up front. HELLO HOT ROD is poised to have a big spring, coming into the sale off of a 3-race win streak where he has posted victories over both 7-furlongs and 1-mile. He has paired his speed figures on both Thoro-Graph and Ragozin and should progress forward next out.

7+ length allowance winner next out

HELLO HOT ROD has been consistent from the word "GO" and has shown tractability within his races, running from the back of the pack in his debut behind a slow pace up front. With that experience under his belt, he went on to flash speed in his next 3 starts.

After closing faster than anyone in his debut, HELLO HOT ROD broke sharply in his second start, showing the way before having his lead cut to half-a-length at the top of the lane. From there, HELLO HOT ROD put four lengths in between himself and the field, blowing away 11 other 2-year-olds (click to watch race replay).

In his 3rd lifetime effort, HELLO HOT ROD sat just off the early pace in his first start over a mile before recording a 2-1/4 length success, sprinting away from the field in the same fashion he did in his maiden win (click to watch race replay). The 2nd place finisher, SHACKQUEENKING, would come back to win the Howard County S. next out while 3rd place finisher ROYAL NUMBER went on to win an allowance at Laurel next out by 7-3/4 lengths. Both of these colts are entered in the G3 Withers this Saturday (Feb-6) at Aqueduct.

PAST PERFORMANCES

Making his stakes debut in the $100,000 Jimmy Winkfield at Aqueduct, HELLO HOT ROD set a pressured early pace while shipping out of state for the first time against open company. Never allowed any breathing room from the start, the 3yo colt showed his grit in the lane, never letting the impressive maiden winner RETURN THE RING (Speightster) get by him in the lane. He also battled gamely to fend off Stakes winner PICO d'ORO (Curlin) who finished 3rd (click to watch race replay).

"He can go or he can sit, so as the races get longer, he has options. I think that's going to be a huge thing."

@JessMartiniTDN spoke to @MrsRussell26, the trainer/co-owner of Jimmy Winkfield S. winner Hello Hot Rod, who sells this week at @FasigTiptonCo.

"I loved him to be fair, but you don't love the 1-hold going 7-furlongs, so that was a concern... He showed he's a tough racehorse and that's what you want."

LOOKING AHEAD

HELLO HOT ROD has yet to show any distance limitations, which presents several opportunities for his next start. With the 3-year-old schedule starting to heat up in early March, HELLO HOT ROD gives any buyer the chance to head straight back into Stakes company with a tried and tested colt. A likely next possible outing for this interesting racing prospect includes the $300,000 G3 Gotham, over the same Aqueduct track that he just won over.

Potential stakes which HELLO HOT ROD is eligible for includes but is not limited to:
