Don't Call Me Mary coasts to an easy allowance score at Gulfstream Park

Last Race: ALW-N1X, 3/28/21

Track: Gulfstream

Trainer: Todd Pletcher

Don't Call Me Mary comes to the sale off a career best effort in a dominant allowance win at Gulfstream Park last out at the end of March where she earned career best Ragozin (11) and Thoro-Graph (4) figures. Having only run seven times, Don't Call Me Mary figures to continue improving as she gets more experience and she looks like an excellent candidate to head towards stakes company.

Don't Call Me Mary broke her maiden with ease in her second start, setting the pace and drawing off to win by 13 before stepping up into allowance company and finding only the G3P Cinnabunny too good. Don't Call Me Mary would come right back in allowance company, dominating on the front end to win by 4 1/4 lengths over nine other fillies and mares. It's important to note that her one bad race came at the end of last year in Saratoga. She ended up washing out quite badly in the paddock after she refused to have the blinkers put on. She essentially ran her race in the paddock and Irad Ortiz took care of her on the track, essentially easing her out of the race. The blinkers have come off this year and she has been calm and composed in the paddock on both occasions.

In her first start at four, Don't Call Me Mary suffered a bit of a rough trip before ultimately finishing a narrow 2nd to the G1P Slam Dunk. Making her second start of her four-year-old season on March 28th, Don't Call Me Mary put it all together to easily score in a Gulfstream Park allowance by 4 3/4 lengths. In all, Don't Call Me Mary's three lifetime wins have come by a combined 22 lengths.

THORO-GRAPH & RAGOZIN

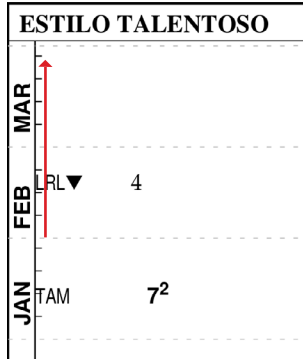

To put her Ragozin figure into comparison, Pacific Gale won the G3 Hurricane Bertie over the same surface that Don't Call Me Mary just ran over and she earned a (10) in winning that graded event. Lady's Island won the G3 Sugar Swirl at Gulfstream Park in December and she earned a (14).

Don't Call Me Mary Thoro-Graph Sheet

Estilo Talentoso Thoro-Graph Sheet

In addition to Don't Call Me Mary's Ragozin sheet showing that she is a graded quality filly, her Thoro-Graph sheet does as well. Her numbers this year are very comparable to those of Estilo Talentoso who earned a (4) when 2nd in the G3 Barbara Fritchie before running 2nd again, beaten just 3/4 of a length in the G1 Madison at Keeneland.

RACE SCHEDULE

Don't Call Me Mary is still eligible for a second-level allowance, even though she has three wins on a count of her dominant win against state-bred company in June of last year. Since then, she has improved quite a bit and would figure to be heavily supported in any allowance race that she runs in. However, her figures have shown her to be stakes quality and she would likely be competitive at the stakes/graded stakes level.
