ANALYSIS

3yo dirt colt BOTTLE ROCKET MAN (Into Mischief) commanded $350,000 from owners White Birch Farm and Robert LaPenta as a yearling. Riding on those high expectations, BOTTLE ROCKET MAN made his debut as a 2-year-old during the Saratoga meet only to run into future G2 Bourbon & Mucho Macho Man S. winner MUTASAABEQ in his TDN Rising Star performance.

He came back as a 3-year-old to break his maiden in his 2021 seasonal bow at Monmouth where he was dubbed the favorite. Breaking well, he sat right off the pace over the 6-furlongs, earned the lead at the top of the lane and prevailed gamely in the stretch.

★ BOTTLE ROCKET MAN gave trainer Chad Brown the confidence to debut him as a 2-year-old at Saratoga. While he was sidelined for the rest of his freshman season by a routine P1 ankle chip removal surgery, the son of Into Mischief came back to break his maiden this year going 6f on the dirt. (Click to view or scan QR code).

★ He has since made 1 start against winners where he was hustled out of the gate and chased an extremely hot pace (:21.4, :44.3, :56.2). He is lightly-raced, and has a lot of options for his next start. He has a lot of turf in his pedigree so a start over that surface is not out of the question.

RACE SCHEDULE

While BOTTLE ROCKET MAN has raced exclusively going 1-turn on the dirt, the colt has a lot of turf in his pedigree so a start over that surface should not be ruled out. One very important thing to keep in mind heading into the summer is Del Mar's revamped 'Ship & Win' program, offering a $4k starter bonus + 40-50% purse bonuses to all out-of-state starters. From current available condition books, possible next starts include but are not limited to:
