ANALYSIS

SHUTTERS made his second start a winning one at Belmont Park, showing increased speed with blinkers on before finishing full of run to hold off Mr. Connecticut down the lane, winning by a neck in the end with the 3rd place finisher 2 ½ lengths behind the pair and the 4th place finisher an additional 4 lengths back. As a New York-bred Shutters holds his Alw-N1X condition moving forward against his fellow state-bred's as well as in open company.

After debuting in a state-bred maiden at Saratoga, SHUTTERS came right back at Belmont Park with the addition of blinkers and showed much improved speed, sitting just off the early pace before kicking to the lead in the stretch and holding off Mr. Connecticut in the end (RACE REPLAY).

It's also important to note that SHUTTERS traveled significantly further than any of other horse in his maiden win, with his opponents traveling anywhere from 23 ft less to 49 ft less (8f = 1 length). SHUTTERS gave up 3-½ lengths to eventual 2nd place finisher Mr. Connecticut, making this an even more impressive performance.

RAGOZIN

SHUTTERS took an impressive step forward on Ragozin in his maiden win, moving from a 20 $\frac{1}{4}$ in his debut to a very solid 14 $\frac{1}{2}$ . This number makes him a candidate for any New York-bred turf stake next year as well as any open allowance he may head towards in his next start.

RACE SCHEDULE

While there aren't any state-bred spots for SHUTTERS to run in until next spring, his maiden breaking numbers open him up for a try against open allowance company.
