He followed that up with a wide trip in the G2 Fountain of Youth where he ran arguably one of his best races to that point.

Finish: 3rd
Trainer: Rodolphe Brisset
Conditions Left: Alw-N2X

TARANTINO was a debut winner over the turf at Del Mar, winning by a length over eventual Canadian classic runner-up, Harlan Estate. After being nosed in his first attempt at the stakes level, TARANTINO came back to win again in an allowance at Gulfstream. When switching surfaces, TARANTINO turned in an impressive 2nd in the G3 Holy Bull and followed that up with another strong showing in the G2 Fountain Of Youth, where he stayed on well for 4th ahead of Breeders' Cup winner, Fire At Will. His latest effort over the yielding turf at Keeneland he was forced to go 7-wide on the turn from well-back and charged late to finish strongly to be 3rd on the line (RACE REPLAY).

THOROMANAGER

TARANTINO posted a career-best speed rating in his first start off the layoff at Keeneland, finishing strongly in the lane after being forced 7-wide into the stretch. This shows that despite the time off he has quickly rounded back into his best form. The 7 he earned in his last start is equal to or faster than every 3yo Graded Stakes winning male on turf this year, outside of Yibir when he earned a 5 winning the Breeders' Cup Turf.

THORO-GRAPH & RAGOZIN

RACE SCHEDULE

While he's shown dual-surface talent, TARANTINO seems best suited to the turf. We also wouldn't count out his ability on an all-weather surface given his only start was the Jeff Ruby Steaks, a race in which he stumbled badly out of the gate and was never a factor. He still holds his Alw-N2X condition but has shown the ability to perform in stakes company giving his future connections a multitude of future starts.
