NEEDS SUPERVISION sat in 8th place on the Road to the Kentucky Oaks leaderboard after her win in the Silverbulletday Stakes.

She came into the race off a 5-length allowance win at Churchill Downs in her final race at two where she earned an 84 Beyer and defeated the SW/G1P MEADOW DANCE (Click to view race replay).

NEEDS SUPERVISION returned home to Laurel Park in the Weathervane S. that September, finishing 2nd, beaten a length after being squeezed at the start. She was 4-lengths clear of the 3rd place finisher (Click to view race replay).

Back at Laurel in Safely Kept S, NEEDS SUPERVISION came from 6th and more than 6 ½ lengths back of the leader to win by 3 ¼ lengths, going away at the end to defeat 3 stakes winners including GSW VICTIM OF LOVE.

NEEDS SUPERVISION wins the Safely Kept by a widening 3+ lengths.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Earlier this year, NEEDS SUPERVISION shipped to New York to contest the Interborough where she ran 2nd, beaten just a length while finishing nearly a length in front of SW/G3P SAGUARO ROW (Click to view race replay).

this spring.

SUMMARY

NEEDS SUPERVISION was bred right off the track at the end of April this year to MEDAGLIA d'ORO however did not catch. Instead of breeding her on a May cover date for her first foal, her connections elected to put her back in training for the remainder of her 5-year-old season, making her last start on October 29th. She is suitable for mating and open for an early cover in the 2022 breeding season.

She was a precocious and talented 2-year-old, who carried that form around 2-turns. She started her 3-year-old season with an impressive win in the Silverbulletday which put her on the Oaks trail. She is an honest mare, having defeated 20 other Stakes winners over the course of her career.
