

Brooklyn Diamonds as a two-year-old.

Last Race: 2nd, AOC-N1X
Track: Oaklawn
Trainer: Rodolphe Brisset
Conditions Left: ALW-N1X

ANALYSIS

Lightly raced Brooklyn Diamonds arrives to the Keeneland April Sale full of promise after breaking his maiden in last to first fashion in his debut, making up more than 5 lengths in the stretch to win going away. Brooklyn Diamonds took a step forward in his second start, his first against winners and his first around two turns, running 2nd, beaten just 2 ¼ lengths in the stretch. Brooklyn Diamonds retains his conditions off that effort and his forward progression makes him a colt with promise as we head into the spring.

BROOKLYN DIAMONDS made up more than 5 lengths in the stretch of his debut, coming from last in a race that didn't feature a pace meltdown. This is underscored by the fact that the 2nd place finisher set the pace and the 3rd place finisher sat just off the early pace.

Making his first start around two turns, BROOKLYN DIAMONDS showed some grit in the lane, making up more than three lengths to finish 2nd, beaten just 2 ¼ lengths (Race Replay ) while giving up experience to every other horse in the field.

THORO-GRAPH

BROOKLYN DIAMONDS earned a fast (7²) Thoro-Graph when breaking his maiden sprinting in his debut, a number that compares favorably to the (7) that Markhamian earned when winning the Pasco S. earlier this year at Tampa Bay Downs.

LOOKING AHEAD

Having shown the ability to sprint and route in his short two race career, BROOKLYN DIAMONDS has a plethora of options moving forward and more importantly, retained his eligibility for allowance races worth upwards of $127,000.
