

ANALYSIS

Already a stakes winner at 3 this year, HEAVEN STREET comes to the sale after finishing just 3 ¾ lengths behind the unbeaten UNANIMOUS CONSENT (GB) in the Woodhaven Stakes in New York.

After two unremarkable efforts on the dirt, HEAVEN STREET has been a new horse since being moved to the turf, where he is 3 for 6. These 6 starts also include a 3rd place finish over the turf against Stakes company at Woodbine. As a juvenile, he took an Alw-N1X while at Kentucky Downs last year without Lasix.

HEAVEN STREET is a three-time winner on turf, including a win in the Columbia Stakes at Tampa Bay Downs earlier this year (click to view race replay). In this Stakes win, he defeated the promising FORT WASHINGTON, who came back to run 2nd in the Woodhaven Stakes in New York. Heaven Street finished just 3 ¾ lengths back off of the winner in that race last out.

As a juvenile, HEAVEN STREET was a two-time winner, including an easy 2 ¾ length romp at the lucrative Kentucky Downs meet where he defeated STOLEN BASE (click to view race replay). This runner-up came back to narrowly miss by ¾ of a length in the G2 Bourbon at Keeneland in his very next start.

LOOKING AHEAD

HEAVEN STREET has already showcased his ability to run graded quality numbers this year and being a 3-year-old, there are plenty of opportunities to take advantage of Stakes purses as we head into the summer. Possible stakes are listed below.
