Very troubled trip, traveling well but had to be checked hard in the stretch

➤ MASMAK put in a big run in his first start as a 3YO (MSW at Saratoga), after breaking at the back of the pack for the first time, and was 4 wide around the turn, he made his move at the top of the lane going from 8th to 2nd earning an 88 Beyer. He ran 2nd to MONTALCINO who won a Stake two starts later and was 2nd in the G3 Commonwealth Stakes this year.

➤ In his 2nd start of his 3YO year, MASMAK overcame another imperfect trip to break his maiden as the favorite. He stumbled at the break, and was 4 wide in the turn but rallied to win by 1 1/4 lengths. He followed that up with another confident win next out.

➤ After not getting up in time in his first start of 2025, he stretched out to 1 1/8th mile in his next start, he was keen out of the gate and was taken under a tight hold down the backside. Inching up close up on the leaders, he veered 3 wide on the turn and rallied to win by 2 3/4 lengths.

➤ MASMAK stepped up to Stakes company and stretched out to 1 1/4 miles in his last start, it was quite an odd pace scenario with the front runners setting a very hot pace out in the middle of the racetrack, Phineas Fogg made his move and drew away opening the lead too far for Masmak to make up. He still rallied in the stretch and was caught at the wire for 2nd and finished 3rd, hitting the board in his first time against stakes company.

SPEED FIGURES

THORO-GRAPH

- Masmak earned his lifetime best 0²- Thoro-Graph when winning an Alw-N3X at Aqueduct in his second to last start (7-Mar-25).

He regressed on sheet figures in his last start, his stakes debut, when stretching out to 1 ¼ m but still got up for 3rd, defeating two very good horses in G2W Crupi and G3W Batten Down

- One can figure that MASMAK should continue to improve his figures when he returns to his comfortable distance at 1 1/8th. These numbers indicate he should be able to win at the graded stakes level.
