ANALYSIS

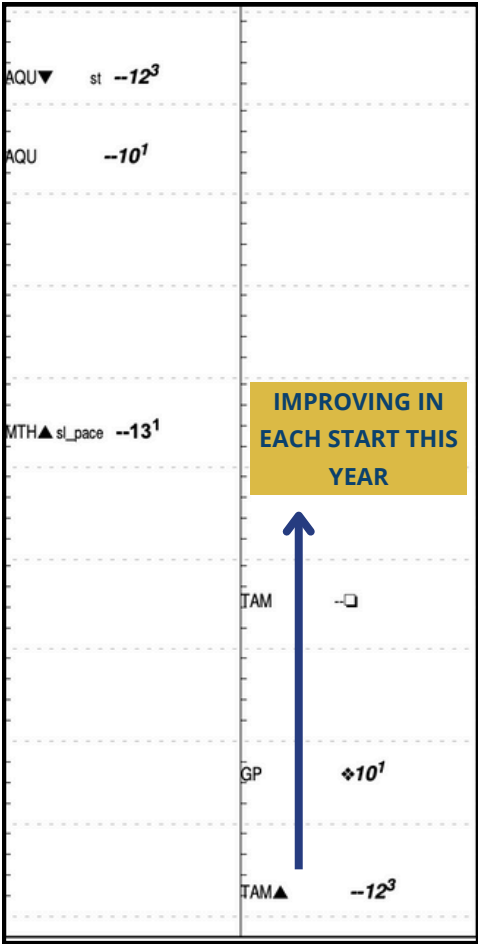

CLICK TO VIEW RACE REPLAYS

SHADE OF PALE is a lightly-raced filly who was last seen running 2nd by a neck against Alw-N1X company in her most recent start on April 19th. This was her third start of 2025, gearing up for her 4-year-old campaign. She ran back to her lifetime best 80 Beyer Speed Figure and also took a step forward on Thoro-Graph and Ragozin.

This filly has rounded back to to form in her 3rd start of the year and her speed figures have improved steadily this year. She looks like she should be in a great position to win a 1st-level allowance next time out. She ships directly from Chad Brown’s Payson Park string to the Keeneland April Horses of Racing Age Sale.

SPEED FIGURES

THORO-GRAPH

RAGOZIN

SHADE OF PALE earned a =13- Ragozin last time out when finishing 2nd by a neck against N1X company. This figure is solid and should be good enough to win an Alw-N1X across the country. For example, several Stakes level fillies/mares who have run this year earned similar figures in their careers.

HORSE	FINISH	TRACK	RACE	RAG

LOOKING AHEAD

As seen in her most recent start on April 19th, SHADE OF PALE is sitting on the brink of her N1X win. She paired her lifetime best 80 Beyer and earned a new career-top =13- Ragozin. If she runs back to these figures next out, she should find herself in the winners circle at the Alw-N1X level next out. Possible next starts based on what condition books are available include but are not limited to:
