- He ran for $50k-N3L last out and was beaten 10+ lengths. If staying on an A level circuit, he likely needs to drop in for the $30k-N3L.
- He had blinkers added two starts back and ran well enough at Monmouth, but his two starts in New York this summer and fall have been subpar.
- He can also run in an ALW-N1X if he goes to a B-level track.
